

Doula Training Workshop

Extended Payment Plan

Tuition for the Doula Training Workshop is $550. This covers four full days of training, your Doula Training Notebook, a half-hour session of individual mentoring with Michelle L'Esperance, CPM, and optional participation in the private online Warm Welcome Birth Services discussion group for new doulas. The initial deposit, due with registration, is a minimum of $90. Payment in full (balance $460 after payment of deposit) is normally due 10 days before the first day of class. Payments received after that date without prior agreed-upon arrangements incur a $15 late charge per month or portion thereof, and if there is a wait list, your spot may be forfeited to another student.

Some partial workstudy exchanges may be available (usually for credit of 10% of tuition), as is a scholarship discount for any aspiring doula who is bilingual and plans to use her doula skills to support women whose primary language is not English ($25 discount). Refer a friend and receive a $25 tuition discount.

In an effort to make the Doula Training Workshop an option for as many women as possible, I will accept tuition payments after the workshop has begun, with clear agreement in advance as outlined below. The initial deposit remains the same, and the balance is due according to our agreement. A minimum of $275 must be paid by 10 days before the beginning the workshop.

If we have agreed on a workstudy assignment or foreign language discount that will reduce your total tuition, at least $225 must be paid by 10 days before the beginning of the workshop. If you wish to utilize the extended payment plan, please sign below. I trust that you will honor our agreement by sending payments on time. I do not normally send you a bill or reminder. Late payments incur a $15 late charge per month or portion thereof, and the student forfeits any discounts.

Once you have completed your payments, attended the full workshop, and attended a childbirth education series, I will be happy to be a professional reference for you. I will provide a reference for you by phone, on letterhead, or both. Your mentoring session is available when payment in full has been received. Checks should be written to Michelle L'Esperance, CPM, and mailed to the address below.

Your proposed payment schedule (subject to review & acceptance). Please note that your payment plan is more likely to be accepted if it consists of no more than 2-3 payments, extending over a maximum of 2 months beyond the Workshop. _____
